

Jonathan Mincks

Actor – Producer – Showman
Wolf Trap Teaching Artist

Performing professionally since childhood, Jonathan Mincks' career has run the gamut from street theatre to major film and television productions and everything in between. His own productions have taken him around the world and won him three world championship titles for performance. Mincks is also the creator of two of the longest-running public shows in Arizona history—both still running today, some 30 years later.

His passion and lifelong study of the performance arts has led him to inspire and educate students for more than 20 years. As a Wolf Trap teaching artist, Jonathan has seen how powerful “learning by doing” is in early childhood education. His Play a Book series, for example, has inspired teachers to help their young students learn on their feet, creating rather than witnessing with recall, social awareness, problem-solving, and real emotion naturally integrated in the lessons.

“Just commit and let go. They’ll come along.”
